CALL TO ORDER AND INTRODUCTION

State Board of Education Chairman William Cobey called the Wednesday session of the November 2014 State Board of Education meeting to order and declared the Board in official session. Chairman Cobey noted that the State Board met on the campus of UNC Charlotte for its planning session and Board meeting in October and returned to the Board Room in Raleigh this month. He thanked Chancellor Dubois and his staff again for all of their hospitality and work to see that all of the State Board’s needs were met. After explaining that today’s meeting is audio-streamed and that the agenda and all materials are posted online, accessible through the State Board’s website, he welcomed visitors, online listeners, and Twitter followers.

In compliance with the requirements of Chapter 138A-15(e) of the State Government Ethics Act, Chairman Cobey reminded Board members of their duty to avoid conflicts of interest and appearances of conflicts of interest under Chapter 138A. He asked if members of the Board knew of any conflict of interest or any appearance of conflict with respect to any matters coming before them during this meeting. There were no conflicts of interest communicated at this time. The Chairman then requested that if, during the course of the meeting, members became aware of an actual or apparent conflict of interest that they bring the matter to the attention of the Chairman. It would then be their duty to abstain from participating in discussion and from voting on the matter.
As the first order of business, Chairman Cobey drew attention to the full meeting agenda, which is available online on eBoard. He noted that the times assigned on this agenda for these two days are a guideline and that, to the extent possible, the Board will honor the schedule. However, the Board does exercise flexibility on times when necessary. Chairman Cobey asked for a motion to approve the State Board of Education meeting agenda for November 5 and November 6, 2014.

Therefore, he directed SBE Vice Chairman A.L. Collins to manage those committee meetings.

The Board’s committee meetings were held (see committee meeting summaries).

Dr. Atkinson explained that the schools recognized today completed a self-assessment, demonstrated a best practice that can be a model for the rest of the state, and participated in a site visit. She commended Ms. Tina Marcus who has been a part of this effort for the Department as well as Dr. Sam Houston who has been a partner.

Each school was invited forward to receive a plaque of recognition and appreciation from the Board. The presentations were photographed.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

K-12 Curriculum and Instruction
Each month the NC Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) highlights the work of its divisions that support the state’s 115 school districts and 1.5 million children. This month’s spotlight shines on the K-12 Curriculum and Instruction Division.

The division
• Leads development of content standards and supporting resource materials for all subjects and grades.
• Delivers professional development for teachers, principals and district leaders to support implementation of the NC Standard Course of Study, Multi-tiered System of Support (MTSS), Global Education and Academic/Intellectually Gifted (AIG).
• Reviews assessment items for End-of-Grade and End-of-Course tests, NC Final Exams and online assessment banks to make sure they are aligned to the NC Standard Course of Study.
• Reviews instructional resources from a variety of sources to verify alignment to the NC Standard Course of Study and inclusion in Home Base.
• Monitors program compliance and provides oversight for special grants and programs such as HIV and Abstinence grants, Math/Science Partnership grants, and AIG plans.
• Supports other areas concerning academics such as course codes, Blue Ribbon Schools, textbook evaluation and selection, A+ Schools Program, and the Governor’s Teacher Network.

Mandated Reporting - School and Teacher Paperwork Reduction Act
The NC General Assembly requires the State Board of Education (SBE) to report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by November 15 of each year on reports required at the state level. Here are selected highlights from the Paperwork Reduction Act Report
• After several years of reductions in the reporting requirements from the LEAs to NCDPI, the number of required reports remained constant at 130 for 2014-15.
• All of those reports are required by federal or state law (See Attachment 1). Much of the federally mandated reporting is tied to program monitoring and large funding sources like Titles I, II and III. The elimination of such reporting could result in a significant loss of funds for the LEAs. In addition, NCDPI does not have the authority to eliminate any reporting required by the NC General Assembly.

Dr. Atkinson noted that fifty-one reports are required by the General Assembly and there are 79 reports required by the federal government. Two percent come from just the State Board’s initiatives to get data, according to Dr. Atkinson.

The full report is to be acted on as a consent agenda item during today’s meeting.

INFORMATION

GCS 4 – School Calendar Impact on Achievement Report
Policy Implications: Session Law 2012-77

Presenter(s): Dr. Rebecca Garland (Deputy State Superintendent) and Dr. Tammy Howard (Director, Accountability Services)

Description:
The State Board of Education requested a report on student achievement for the different school calendars implemented in North Carolina. High schools operate on either (1) a semester calendar, often referred to as block schedule, or (2) a traditional calendar spanning from August to June. The majority of elementary schools follow a traditional calendar, but there are some year-round schools that have intermittent breaks, most often three weeks, throughout a full-year calendar, which begins in July and ends the following June. The report provides information on student achievement by school calendar and offers possible explanations for differences.

Recommendations:
It is recommended the State Board of Education discuss the report and provide the staff with any further direction.

Discussion/Comments:
• Vice Chairman A.L. Collins explained that this item is in response to the State Board’s request from staff to illustrate the differences between traditional and year-round school calendars. He recognized Dr. Garland to present the report.
• Dr. Garland highlighted the major findings of the School Calendar Impact on Achievement Report. She explained that tables are used in the report as the format as opposed to text in order to make the data easy to read. She noted that this report reflects the data from the scores of the 2013-14 school year.
Dr. Garland shared that after receiving next year’s data there will be three years’ worth of data on the new standards. The Department suggests doing an empirical study using matched groups comparing performance of like students in a traditional versus a block schedule for a more in-depth study of the correlation between calendar and student performance.

Dr. Garland noted that at first glance it looks like calendar is associated with and can have impact on student achievement. A brief discussion ensued.

Board member Willoughby indicated that she would like to see additional research on geographic distribution especially at the high school level. After noting the request, Dr. Atkinson shared that several years ago Dr. Vinetta Bell completed a compilation of research about year-round schools and different schedules. At the same time, the Department had contact with a Duke University professor who did extensive research about what makes a difference as it relates to time. She shared that at the elementary level, his study showed that having continuity over time without large breaks in instructional time made a difference in addition to having the extra help and assistance along the way for struggling students. She stated that she would share that research with the Board.

A brief conversation occurred about the block schedule. Board member Oxendine asked if anyone recollected the rationale for going to the block schedule. Dr. Oxendine also shared that one of the concerns she continues to receive, especially about the integrated approach to mathematics in grades 9-12, is the struggle that many classroom teachers are having as it relates to sufficient time to teach the specific skills that relate to the various math disciplines in the integrated approach. Dr. Garland provided some history about the inception of the block schedule, which occurred in response to concerns about students spending a lot of time moving from class to class. There were also fewer preparations for students on a block schedule, and 90-minutes would provide teachers more time for instruction and application of learning. And, finally it also helped to resolve money issues, according to Dr. Garland; she provided examples.

Board members made brief commentary about this topic and expressed appreciation for the continuing research. Board member McDevitt noted his desire to move from research to addressing policy and practice on this topic.

Dr. Oxendine asked if the College Board allows Advanced Placement (AP) courses to be taught in a block schedule. Dr. Garland explained that LEAs typically teach AP courses during the spring semester on the block, but offer a local elective in the content area in the fall so that students actually get double preparation prior to sitting for the AP exam.

On a separate issue, Board member Kevin Howell explained that he received a letter from approximately 20 superintendents related to the 10-point grading scale. He shared that while the superintendents support the change in the grading scale, there is concern for the different cohorts of students taking the same class while being graded using the different grading scales. Dr. Garland explained that when the conversation first began about the 10-point scale and the transition (not only transitioning from a grading scale, but also weighting, which has an impact on class rank and GPA), the Board weighed in on both issues in tandem and the preference was to do this by cohort because they did not want an impact on class rank and GPA for students. Given the fact that both changed, Dr. Garland explained that seniors next year could make all As and see their GPAs decline or some students who did not know scheduling would make a difference when they created their high school plans, would have the opportunity to take an AP course this year and benefit from six quality points instead of five next year, which would have an impact on class rank. Subsequently, that was the reason for going with cohorts so as not to impact class rank with juniors and seniors in particular where scheduling could have made a difference for those students. There were advantages and disadvantages to doing both, according to Dr. Garland. She noted that the Department also received the letter referenced by Mr. Howell. She stated that thus far, most of the feedback has come from superintendents in this region and not as much from superintendents across the state. Dr. Garland explained that the Department will be working on the communications plan for this proposal. She also noted that next fall, when GPAs start to fall, she expects a lot of feedback from a different audience.

Dr. Garland reiterated from earlier discussions that the transition was never going to be easy. But if the Board is interested in further review, staff will comply.

Board member Howell asked Dr. Atkinson if she could raise these issues as well as the block schedule issue with LEA superintendents in December during the Superintendents’ Quarterly meeting. She stated that she would be glad to add this to the Superintendents’ Quarterly meeting agenda to allow superintendents an additional opportunity to provide feedback. Dr. Atkinson noted for reference purposes that in June 2014, in Asheville, superintendents were asked to share their thoughts about the 10-point scale (effective for an entering freshman class) and course weighting. She shared that superintendents overwhelmingly were in favor of the 10-point scale at the same time quality points are changing. Subsequent to that, Dr. Atkinson added that the Department has asked superintendents for feedback during two webinars, in two separate emails from Dr. Garland, and in Dr. Atkinson’s regional meetings with superintendents across the state over the last few months.

Board member Alcorn stated that he would like to fast-track this as it relates to comparison of national and international numbers. He asked if year-round schedules cost more or less than traditional schedules, and if it increases scores, does it decrease additional services therefore costs less. Board member McDevitt also asked that the discussion be larger as it relates to cost to include: professional development, remediation for students, and 12-month contracts for teachers.

Vice Chairman Collins noted that there is nothing more controversial at the local level than calendars. He spoke briefly about his district’s study and cautioned not trying to develop a calendar for LEAs. For the record, Board member McDevitt shared that the State Board of Education has been on record for at least 15 years for local control of the calendar.

There was no further discussion.

Policy Implications: SBE Policy # GCS-A-12; No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB)

Presenter(s): Dr. Rebecca Garland (Deputy State Superintendent) and Dr. Tammy Howard (Director, Division of Accountability Services)

Description:
As a part of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB), LEAs receiving Title III funds must meet a series of Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives (AMAOs). The three objectives include the following:
1) Students identified as limited English proficient shall demonstrate progress by achieving one or more of the following in terms of the overall composite proficiency score on the annual English language proficiency test: 1) increase to the next English language proficiency level; 2) increase the previous score by 0.5; or 3) reach the Comprehensive Objective Composite (COC).
2) There must be an annual increase in the percentage of students identified as limited English proficient who attain English language proficiency on the required state-identified English language proficiency test. Effective with the 2008-09 school year and beyond, students must meet the COC as set by the state. The COC defines the attainment of English language proficiency by the student reaching an overall composite score of 4.8 or above, with at least a 4.0 on the reading subtest and at least a 4.0 on the writing subtest on the state’s annual English language proficiency test.
3) The percent of students in the LEP subgroup must annually meet its Annual Measurable Objectives (AMO) targets for academic proficiency in English language arts and mathematics.

LEAs that do not meet their AMAO targets two years in a row will be required to develop a detailed improvement plan as required by NCLB. See the attachments for additional information and a statistical summary of results.

Policy Implications: General Statute § 115C-83.3(8) and 115C-83.7(b), House Bill 230

Presenter(s): Dr. Rebecca Garland (Deputy State Superintendent) and Ms. Carolyn Guthrie (Director, K-3 Literacy)

Description:
House Bill 230 allows Local Education Agencies (LEAs) to submit proposals to the State Board of Education (SBE) for a local alternative portfolio process. The completion of a student-reading portfolio is one of the Good Cause Exemptions listed in the Read to Achieve law. The law states that “students who demonstrate, through a student reading portfolio, reading proficiency appropriate for third grade” shall have a good cause exemption. HB 230 also clarifies the definition of a student-reading portfolio. “Student reading portfolio means a compilation of independently produced student work selected by the student’s teacher, beginning during the first half of the school year, and signed by the teacher and principal, as an accurate picture of the student’s reading ability. The student-reading portfolio shall include an organized collection of evidence of the student’s mastery of the state’s reading standards that are assessed by the state-approved standardized test of reading comprehension administered to third grade students. A single piece of evidence may show mastery of up to two standards. For each benchmark, there shall be three examples of student work demonstrating mastery by a grade of seventy percent (70%) or above. The SBE approved the Department of Public Instruction’s Read to Achieve portfolio process in October 2013 and addendums to this process in February of 2014.

In July of 2014, staff at the Department of Public Instruction (DPI) met with representatives from each State Board district. The committee is referred to as the Portfolio Advisory Committee (PAC). The committee discussed what LEA local alternatives proposals should include before being presented to the SBE. A suggested list of the components of a local alternative proposal was developed. This list was sent to the field through central office and curriculum coordinator’s list serves for more feedback from the field.

The attached local alternative portfolio was submitted to DPI for review. The PAC has reviewed the proposal and is recommending the following to the SBE for approval: LEA local alternative portfolio recommended for approval: Union County Public Schools.

Recommendations:
The State Board of Education is asked to approve the recommendation of the Portfolio Advisory Committee for the local alternative portfolio for the listed LEA – Union County Public Schools.

Description:
In the 2013-14 school year, 16 Local Education Agencies (LEAs) and charter schools applied for and were granted waivers from administering middle school Career and Technical Education (CTE) Assessments. Due to issues with these data, DPI was not able to include middle school CTE assessments in the student-growth analyses for the 2013-14 school year. The agency is working to provide the data to SAS as quickly as possible for the purpose of conducting a feasibility study for estimating student growth in this area for the 2014-15 school year.

Ms. JoAnne Honeycutt, Director of Career and Technical Education and Dr. Thomas Tomberlin, Director of District Human Resources Support, will facilitate a discussion of the various options available for measuring student growth in middle school CTE courses.

Recommendation(s):
It is recommended that the State Board of Education approve the options for measuring student growth for teachers of middle school CTE courses.

GCS 3 – Accountability Model for Alternative Schools

Policy Implications: SBE Policy # GCS-C-013, GCS-C-022

Presenter(s): Dr. Rebecca Garland (Deputy State Superintendent) and Dr. Tammy Howard (Director, Accountability Services)

Description:
As required by General Statute §115C-12 (24), the State Board of Education (SBE) shall evaluate the effectiveness of alternative learning programs and alternative schools, and as part of the evaluation, the SBE shall apply the accountability system as specified in G.S. §115C-83.15 to measure student performance and growth. However, in consideration of the specific characteristics of these schools, the SBE may modify the accountability system to report more appropriately outcomes. A precedent for a modified accountability model for alternative schools was set with the ABCs of Public Education, which had local option measures rather than the standard achievement and growth analysis specified by the ABCs model.

Information on reporting accountability for alternative schools was presented to the SBE for discussion at its August meeting. The discussion addressed the specific characteristics of these schools and the subsequent impact on the accountability measures. A recommendation to provide local education agencies with three accountability options for alternative schools was presented. The options were:
1. Alternative school receives a school performance grade as specified in state statute,
2. Alternative school returns student scores to the home school for inclusion in the home school’s A-F school performance grade, and
3. Alternative school reports data on student achievement and growth, and receives a status of improving, maintaining, or declining, but does not receive an A-F school performance grade.

The Accountability Division has presented the three options, with detailed explanation of the alternative accountability model, which is Option 3, to various stakeholders including the NC Association of Alternative Educators (NCAAE), district accountability and testing directors, and alternative school principals. On September 24, 2014, the division presented a webinar for stakeholders and responded to questions for clarification. The three options will be discussed at the November SBE meeting and presented for Action at the December SBE meeting.

Recommendations:
It is recommended that for 2013-14 Alternative Schools continue to report local options, and effective with the 2014-15 school year Alternative Schools adhere to the Alternative Schools’ Accountability Model policy.

Discussion/Comments:
- Vice Chairman A.L. Collins noted a thorough discussion of this item during the GCS Committee meeting on Wednesday.
LEADERSHIP AND INNOVATION COMMITTEE CHAIR REPORT

ACTION
LFI 1 – Revision to State Board Policy # TCS-U-013 Regarding the Planning Year for New Charters

Policy Implications: SBE Policy # TCS-U-013

Presenter(s): Mr. Philip Price (Chief Financial Officer, Financial and Business Services) and Dr. Joel Medley (Director, Office of Charter Schools)

Description:
In November 2006, the State Board of Education formally adopted SBE Policy # TCS-U-013 to establish a mandatory planning year for all new charter schools. The origination of this policy was rooted in historical practice as many charter schools struggled to open their doors with a short timeframe. Charter applicants formerly received approval in March and were to open their schools five months later in August.

While this program has been highly successful, some applicant groups may be able to offer a plausible and rational case for "acceleration" of the planning year and an expedited review. This policy revision would permit the State Board of Education to accelerate a group's participation in the mandatory planning year for new schools if certain factors are demonstrated. In other words, while the application is being reviewed by the Charter School Advisory Board (CSAB), the applicant group could be added to the planning year trainings with the understanding that there is no guaranteed approval of the application. Should a group enter the planning year and the CSAB discovers significant issues, the application group will be removed from the planning year trainings.

The State Board of Education would need to find a demonstrated and compelling case for acceleration into the planning year. Several factors must be clearly met for this acceleration to become possible:

1. Demonstrate a clear and compelling need for the accelerated planning year;
2. Partner with a two- or four-year institution of higher education in North Carolina;
3. Verify the absence of a charter school in the proposed county of location; and
4. Agree to participate in the planning year while the charter application is being reviewed without any guarantee of charter award.

If those requirements are met, the State Board of Education, in its discretion, will also consider the presence or absence of the following factors:
1. Unique mission and educational program;
2. Local, state, and national nonprofit partnerships committed to assisting the school;
3. Potential for economic and educational development of the region;
4. Mentoring by a successful organization that has experience in creating public schools;
5. Obstacles to educational reform efforts that leave chartering as an available option; and
6. Commitment to work with a successful charter school board as a guiding mentor.

This above list is not exclusive or controlling and is intended to guide the exercise of the State Board's discretion. If, an applicant group is interested in acceleration of the planning year, that request must be received by the State Board of Education prior to the application due date. Any invitation to planning year trainings does not afford a guarantee of charter approval by the State Board of Education.

For purposes of the current application cycle, where applications were due September, 26, 2014, any group that meets the specific requirements of the policy may request acceleration within 10 days of the formal adoption of this policy.

Recommendations:
The Office of Charter Schools recommends that the State Board of Education approve the suggested modifications to SBE Policy #TCS-U-013 regarding the planning year for new charters.

Discussion/Comments:
• LFI Committee Chair Rebecca Taylor noted a thorough discussion of this item during the LFI Committee meeting on Wednesday.
• There was no further discussion.

Upon motion by Ms. Rebecca Taylor, and seconded by State Treasurer Janet Cowell, the State Board of Education voted unanimously to approve the suggested modifications to SBE Policy #TCS-U-013 related to the planning year as presented. (See Attachment LFI 1)

LFI 2 – Charter Schools Process for the Assumption of Inadequately-Performing Charter
Policy Implications: General Statute § 115C-238.29G.(a1)(2)

Presenter(s): Mr. Philip Price (Chief Financial Officer, Financial and Business Services)

Description:
General Statute § 115C-238.29G.(a1)(2) directs the State Board of Education to develop rules to allow an applicant to assume the charter of an inadequate charter school through a competitive process. The proposed changes in Senate Bill 793 add minimum criteria to be met in the State Board’s rules and set a timeline for completion by January 15, 2015, and report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by February 1, 2015.

In August, the State Board discussed a set of questions and issues around the policy. From that discussion, the Department has drafted and attached a proposed policy with highlighted recommendations that go beyond the minimum requirements set out by law. Also attached is background research on charter school assumption policies around the nation. The final policy will be presented in December for approval.

Recommendations:
It is recommended that the State Board of Education accept the policy.

Discussion/Comments:
- LFI Committee Chair Rebecca Taylor noted a thorough discussion of this item during the LFI Committee meeting on Wednesday. Chair Taylor shared that in response to the Committee’s discussion, staff will work to develop a policy that is more general in nature to allow the Board to have additional flexibility in implementing the assumption process.
- There was no further discussion.

This item is presented for Discussion during the State Board of Education’s November meeting and will return for Action in December 2014. (See Attachment LFI 2)

DISCUSSION

LFI 3 – Cooperative Innovative High School Programs Application Approvals
Policy Implications: General Statute §115C-238.29D(e)

Presenter(s): Dr. Rebecca Garland (Deputy State Superintendent)

Description:
Section 2, Article 16 of Chapter 115C-238, Part 9, Cooperative Innovative High School Programs authorizes boards of trustees of community colleges and local boards of education, boards of governors of the UNC System and the independent colleges to jointly establish cooperative innovative programs in high schools and community colleges that will expand students’ opportunities for education success through high quality instructional programming.

Legislative language requires a multi-step approval process. First, the State Board of Education (SBE) and the appropriate board(s) of the Institutions of Higher Education (IHE) provide a programmatic review and approval. Upon completion, the General Assembly must approve all associated funding requests for each application. The General Assembly may approve funding requests in whole or in part, or may choose not to provide funding. Should the General Assembly choose not to provide funding, the requesting district may revise the application and request SBE approval to open the program with local funds, if desired.

Six districts - Anson County Schools, Guilford County Schools, Pitt County Schools, Wake County Public Schools, Watauga County Schools and Wilson County Schools, as well as the Northeast Regional School for Biotechnology and Agriscience are requesting approval for a total of ten schools. All applications include requests for state funding from the General Assembly. Applications that receive SBE and IHE board program approvals must be submitted for funding approval on April 1, 2015.
Recommendations:
It is recommended that the SBE discuss the Cooperative Innovative High School Programs Joint Advisory recommendations as presented.

Discussion/Comments:
- LFI Committee Chair Rebecca Taylor noted a thorough discussion of this item during the LFI Committee meeting on Wednesday. The six districts requesting approval of Cooperative Innovative High School Programs are listed in the Description section of the Executive Summary on the previous page.
- A brief discussion occurred related to the legislative appropriation funding. Dr. Garland clarified that this becomes part of the State Board’s Supplemental Budget Request once we see how many programs are approved by the State Board and by Higher Education to provide a projection of how much tuition would be needed for FTEs. This is a recurring budget item.
- There was no further discussion.

This item is presented for Discussion during the State Board of Education’s November meeting and will return for Action in December 2014. (See Attachment LFI 3)

North Carolina was awarded a five-year competitive personnel development grant for $7,432,710. The purpose of the North Carolina State Personnel Development Grant (referred to as the State Improvement Project-NC SIP) is to establish and implement staff development and program support services to significantly improve the performance and success of students with disabilities in North Carolina. The five major goals of the NC SIP project are to:
- Improve basic skills performance (in reading and math) for students with disabilities;
- Increase the percentage of qualified teachers of students with disabilities;
- Increase graduation rates and decrease dropout rates of students with disabilities;
- Improve parent satisfaction with, and support of, school services for students with disabilities; and
- Improve the quality of teachers’ instructional competencies.

The NC SIP has supported capacity building for literacy in the schools since 2000 and for mathematics since 2006. Over the past several years, a number of the Institutions of Higher Education (IHEs) have indicated interest in participating in the project to prepare teachers at the pre-service level to develop high quality instructional competencies. At present, NC SIP has two IHE partners and proposes adding two more in the 2014-15 school year (see attached names). The IHEs with special education teacher preparation programs were invited to participate in a competitive application progress. Four applications were received and reviewed (see attached rubric). Priority for funding is given to applicants from regions of North Carolina currently underrepresented in this project as well as sites that demonstrate LEA support and potential to build capacity for research-based instruction in reading and math for students with disabilities.

TCS 3 – Policies Regarding Education Data in North Carolina
Policy Implications: SBE Policy # TCS-C-017

Presenter(s): Dr. Lou Fabrizio (Director, Division of Data, Research & Federal Policy)

Description:
Session Law 2014-50 (Senate Bill 815) states that the State Board of Education (SBE) will make rules to comply with all relevant state and federal privacy laws that apply to all data in the student data system. Specifically, the rules will place restrictions on access to personally identifiable student data and identify criteria for approval of research and data requests for personally identifiable student data. In order to comply, an out-of-date SBE policy (TCS-C-017) has been replaced with two new policies regarding external requests for education data and the internal use and handling of education data by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) staff.

The first policy, External Requests for Education Data, outlines the individuals that are authorized to receive Personally Identifiable Information (PII) from the student data system. It also describes the process for approving the request and releasing the data if the request is approved.

The second policy, Internal Use and Handling of Education Data, requires NCDPI staff to ensure data privacy and security, by following the precepts of the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and industry best practices for the collection, storage, public reporting and transport of education data.

Recommendations:
It is recommended that the State Board of Education delete SBE policy #TCS-C-017 and approve the two new policies regarding the privacy and security of student education records.

UPDATE ON CONTRACTS
(See Attachment in book)
TCS Committee Chair Alcorn encouraged Board members to review the contracts listed for information in the Board book.
NEW BUSINESS
Board member Rebecca Taylor reminded the Board that in August 2014, Chairman Cobey directed the Department to send a memo to charter schools that contract with educational management organizations (EMOs) to provide financial information relating to the expenditure of public funds in public charter schools including the salaries of staff employed by EMOs who work in the charter schools. All charter boards of directors responded as required except Charter Day School, Inc. that contracts with Roger Bacon Academy to run four charter schools. Ms. Taylor explained that after an extension of time to provide the required information granted by DPI, Charter Day School, Inc. still has not met its reporting requirements.

Discussion/Comments:
Lt. Governor Forest asked Mr. Price to provide clarification about authority for requesting this type of information, which was not addressed during the Closed Session meeting on Wednesday.

Chairman Cobey explained that during the Closed Session meeting, the legal staff and financial staff was authorized to bring clarity to this issue. Special Deputy Attorney General Laura Crumpler from the NC Department of Justice addressed this issue as it relates to authority. She explained that the State Board of Education has been endowed by the NC Constitution with the supervision and administration of the system of free public school systems in this state. As part of that authority, the State Board of Education is now permitted under the statutes of this state to give a license to a nonprofit corporation to run a free public school on behalf of this Board and the tax payers of North Carolina. Because of that, the charter document that the nonprofit signed in order to have this privilege and this right, contains provisions that state when this Agency, or the Auditor, or School Board, needs certain information from the nonprofit with regard to the operation of that public school, then this Agency has the right to get that information.

Ms. Crumpler added further that, in this case, the Agency, pursuant to the request of Chair, did in fact ask for very basic information about salaries of individuals who are working in these schools. All schools that were asked for this information responded in a timely manner with the exception of this one nonprofit, Charter Day School, Inc. that is running four schools on the State Board’s behalf. To further explain the Board’s authority over public charter schools, Ms. Crumpler stated that the State Board of Education owns public education in this state, in the name of the people of this state. She used an analogy of an owner who has contracted with a nonprofit to build a house. She stated that when the owner wants to know who is putting the roof on the house and how much they are being paid, the owner has the right to know this information. In summary, Ms. Crumpler stated that the Board is simply seeking information about who is in these schools and how much taxpayer money is being used to pay these individuals.

Vice Chairman Collins expressed concern about the Board not voting to confirm the Chairman’s request for information. He stated that, in in his opinion, this should be an action of the Board. Ms. Crumpler explained that the charter’s language is broad enough to include requests from the Department of Public Instruction requesting information because on a day-to-day basis the Department needs certain information as it moves through its tedious but daily monitoring of these schools. Ms. Crumpler clarified that this information was not requested under the Public Records Act, but rather this information is being requested of charter schools pursuant to the Department’s oversight authority of these charter schools. She reiterated that this is simply an administrative request of public schools being operated by private nonprofits, and noted that Mr. Price asks for information from charter schools routinely.

Mr. Price explained that two types of information were requested from charter schools: salary information for personnel employed by the EMOs that are assigned back to the charter school, and financial information related to budgeting and other financial details. Mr. Price clarified that all of the financial information that was requested has been received. The salary information has been received from all charter schools with the exception of this one group of charter schools. Lt. Governor Forest asked if Charter Day School, Inc. provided the Department with a reason for not complying with this request. Mr. Price explained that, in response to the follow-up request, Charter Day School, Inc. responded that the information is confidential in nature and not required of them to supply. However, they suggested that they would supply the information if one or two of the following conditions was met. 1) The State Board would sign a confidential agreement with them, or 2) if the State Board decided that it is not going to release the information for another charter school that has submitted the salary information.

\text{Upon motion by Mr. Rebecca Taylor, and seconded by Ms. Marcella Savage, the State Board of Education, in the exercise of its constitutional and statutory powers, pursuant to its authority over public charter schools, and in accordance with UERS and SBE Policy # TCS-U-006, voted to direct the Department to place Charter Day School, Inc. as the holder of four charters to operate charter schools in Financial Probationary Status. The four charter schools are: Charter Day School, Columbus Charter School, South Brunswick Charter School, and Douglas Academy.} \\
\text{Provided, the State Board also directs the Department to shorten the time for compliance under Probationary Status from 30 calendar days to 10 business days. At the conclusion of 10 business days, if Charter Day School, Inc. has not complied, it will be placed on Financial Disciplinary Status.} \\
\text{The Department will follow TCS-U-006 and will recommend any future sanctions to the State Board as provided for under that policy.}

NEW BUSINESS

State Treasurer Janet Cowell explained that there have been many questions about the Affordable Care Act, specifically about how it impacts school systems. She then introduced Mr. Steve Tool (Director, Retirement Systems Divisions, and NC Department of State Treasurer) and Ms. Mona Moon (Executive Administrator of North Carolina’s State Health Plan) to address some of the issues and to speak about the aspects of the Affordable Care Act as it is affecting schools.

Prior to the presentation, Chairman Cobey thanked Treasurer Cowell explaining that this is an issue that everyone has been talking about for weeks without much clarity.
Using a PowerPoint presentation Ms. Moon provided a comprehensive overview about the Affordable Care Act (ACA) requirements, NC legislation and statutory requirements and retiree eligibility are impacted by all of these legislations. The PowerPoint presentation is available online on eBoard.

A clarifying discussion occurred as it relates not only to the impact on retirees, but also on the impact of school districts. In closing comments, Chairman Cobey suggested that questions be directed to Treasurer Cowell’s office for clarification.

OLD BUSINESS

No old business was brought before the Board.

CHAIRMAN’S REMARKS

Chairman Cobey congratulated Board member Becky Taylor who was recently inducted into the East Carolina University Educator Hall of Fame. He explained that Ms. Taylor has a long history with East Carolina. A number of years ago, she was selected by East Carolina to pilot an innovative, hands-on science curriculum with middle school students when she was teaching. She also taught in the Department of Special Education at East Carolina where she supervised student teachers.

The Chairman also noted that Dr. Olivia Oxendine and Ms. Marcella Savage return to the Board table today after attending an international forum in Jiangsu Province in China. Chairman Cobey explained that the State Board of Education has a Memorandum of Understanding with Jiangsu, and participates in alternating visits annually. Therefore, the State Board looks forward to hosting educators from Jiangsu Province next year.

ADJOURNMENT

Indicating no other business, Chairman Cobey requested a motion to adjourn. Upon motion by State Treasurer Cowell, and seconded by Ms. Patricia Willoughby, Board members voted unanimously to adjourn the November 5 and November 6, 2014, meeting of the State Board of Education.
